Tour Operator Disclaimer
The duration of the tour is approximate, the exact duration will depend on the time of day and traffic conditions. Our agency works with professional tour guides who are independent contractors. They are contracted for a duration of 4 hours per tour. The total duration of each tour, which ranges from 4 to 5 hours, takes into account the time spent on transportation from the client's pickup location and the traffic conditions on the booked date and time

The order of the program might slightly change due to availability of the Acropolis time slots, traffic or unexpected circumstances like demonstrations, closed streets etc.

Our standard itinerary includes visits to the Acropolis and the Parthenon, the Panathenaic Stadium, the Changing of the Guards ceremony, and a panoramic city drive passing the Temple of Zeus, Hadrian's Arch, the Academy of Athens, and the National Library. If time and traffic permit, we will also stroll through the Plaka/Monastiraki old town district.

We will follow this program unless you request a customized itinerary. In such cases, we will discuss an alternative plan that fits within the 4-hour tour duration. Please note that some standard program visits may be skipped to accommodate specific client requests

For example, travelers might prefer to skip the panoramic city drive and, after visiting the Acropolis, spend the remaining time strolling through the Plaka old town district with our tour guide, possibly stopping for a meal or coffee and ice cream for a more relaxed experience. Alternatively, history enthusiasts might choose to skip the Plaka old town and include a visit to the Acropolis Museum instead.

If you have selected the Cape Souno Extension, the Acropolis tour continues directly into the Sounion tour as a single, continuous experience without an interval in between. The overall duration and ending time will therefore depend on the starting time selected by you.
Cape Sounio extension adds ~3-4 hours to the overall tour duration.
Cape Sounio extension does not include professional tour guide and entrance fees, travellers are visiting the site by themselves and this portion of the tour is conducted by an english speaking, history-proficient driver and potentially a tour host depending on availability on the tour date

Cancellations, Modifications, and Complaints

If you need to cancel or modify your booking, you must submit your request online via the "Manage Bookings" page. The "Manage Bookings" page can be accessed by (1) visiting pe.tours/manage (2) clicking the "Manage Bookings" link at the top right of the page on projectexpedition.com or (3) if you have a registered Project Expedition account, going to "My Account", locating your booking under the "Bookings" tab and then selecting "Manage Reservation". Modifications will be subject to availability and the approval of the tour operator. If you experience an issue with a tour or transfer, you must report it to Project Expedition no later than 14 days after the date of your reservation. All reports must be on time, in writing, and emailed to support@projectexpedition.com to be considered for a refund, should you be eligible for a refund as per our Terms and Conditions.

Shore Excursions Policies

This booking includes the following benefit(s), which supplement the terms above:

Cruise Friendly Refund Policy (included on all Shore Excursions)

You are eligible for a full refund if: your ship arrives late and you miss the excursion; your ship changes its arrival date and rescheduling isn't possible; your ship skips the port of call; your cruise is canceled by the cruise line; or you cancel before the Cancellation Deadline on your Booking Voucher. Submit claims in writing to support@projectexpedition.com within 14 days of the scheduled excursion date, with your booking reference. We verify the ship's actual itinerary before processing; approved refunds follow Section 10 (Refunds).

Back to Ship Guarantee

If you can't rejoin your ship before it departs, we'll assist you in reaching the next port of call and reimburse eligible expenses, provided all of these conditions are met: the Booking includes the Back to Ship Guarantee; the Booking is scheduled to end at least 2 hours before your ship's "all aboard"/departure time (whichever is earlier); you didn't deviate from the booked itinerary; the delay in returning to ship was not caused by any fault, action, or inaction on your part; and you notified Project Expedition as soon as reasonably possible. It's your responsibility to confirm departure/all-aboard times before booking and re-confirm the itinerary on the day.

If all conditions are met, we provide two benefits: (a) reimbursement of reasonable travel and meal costs to reach the next port (original itemized receipts required; each expense must relate directly to your transit). Not reimbursable: business/first/premium-cabin airfare or private/chartered transport where a reasonable standard option existed, and any costs beyond what's reasonably necessary. Contact us before incurring significant air or lodging costs where possible. (b) a courtesy payment for the inconvenience of USD $1,250 per person, up to a maximum of USD $10,000 per Booking (divided equally among all persons if the cap would otherwise be exceeded). This payment is separate and not conditioned on your expense amounts.

Where a booking was made through a travel advisor, we honor that relationship and will either coordinate arrangements directly or defer to the advisor. To claim, contact support@projectexpedition.com in writing within 14 days of the scheduled excursion date with your booking reference and all supporting receipts. This Guarantee is not insurance; it is a limited benefit subject to the conditions and limits above, and we recommend maintaining comprehensive travel insurance.
