Giant's Causeway - Standard Visitor Experience

Thank you for booking the Giant's Causeway Visitor Experience. Your ticket includes reserved on-site parking, a choice on arrival to join a guided tour with our award-winning storytelling team or the use of hand-held audio guides (available in 11 languages), access to the Visitor Centre's exhibition and interpretation area, the shop, café and all facilities.

For details on how to plan your visit please go to our website \(https://www.nationaltrust.org.uk/giants-causeway/news/how-to-plan-your-visit-and-what-to-expect\).

You must arrive within your selected 30 minute booked time. The Giant's Causeway is extremely busy and we will not be able to accommodate you outside your booked time.

Before arriving, remember to check your booking details and we look forward to seeing you soon.

How to get here

The Giant's Causeway Visitor Centre is located on the B147 Causeway Road. It is 2 miles from Bushmills village, 11 miles from Coleraine and 13 miles from Ballycastle.

SatNav: C9444439

Postcode: BT57 8SU

Parking for Cars, Campervans and Motorhomes

Your Visitor Experience ticket includes parking for a standard car parking space (4.8m x 2.25m).

If your vehicle does not fit into a standard car parking space, we will try our best to accommodate parking on arrival.

No overnight parking is permitted, and the car park is locked 30 minutes after the closing time.

Coach / group arrivals

All groups arriving in coaches and mini coaches must be pre-booked with the Giant's Causeway booking office by emailing northcoastbookings@nationaltrust.org.uk (<mailto:northcoastbookings@nationaltrust.org.uk>).

Online bookings are only for visitors that are arriving in a vehicle that can park in a standard car park space.

If you book tickets online and arrive in a larger vehicle you will be denied access to the car park.

On arrival

You must arrive within your selected 30 minute booked time. The Giant's Causeway is extremely busy and we will not be able to accommodate you outside your booked time.

Follow the on-site signage for the main Visitor Experience car park and a member of the Visitor Welcome team will greet you on arrival.

Please have your digital confirmation ready to show a member of staff.

Accessibility

The Visitor Experience at the Giant's Causeway has been designed to be accessible as possible to meet the different needs of our visitors.

The causeway stones are located 1.2km from the visitor centre.

Translink provide a public bus service from the visitor centre to the causeway stones. This service cannot be pre-booked in advance and runs every 20 minutes. Priority will be given to visitors with reduced mobility. The cost is £1.00 per adult each way or €1.20 (subject to change). Translink accept card or cash payments when you board the bus.

Full details on accessibility can be found on our website <https://www.nationaltrust.org.uk/giants-causeway> (<https://www.nationaltrust.org.uk/giants-causeway>).

Dogs on leads are welcome across the site, including within the Visitor Centre.

Cause

Thank you for your support. All the income generated through the Visitor Experience charge helps us to care for and protect Northern Ireland's only UNESCO World Heritage Site. As a conservation charity we look after the nation's coastline, historic sites, countryside and green spaces. This ensures everyone benefits, so people can have unforgettable experiences when they visit these special places, and they will be protected for future generations to enjoy.
