Notice:

PLEASE NOTE - For flights involving a route with a TRAIN connection identified by the code 9B, you need to check in for the train trip, starting 72 hours before departure, on the website <https://check-in.accesrail.com/#/step1>.

For flights involving a route with a TRAIN connection identified by the code W2 (all German stations) you can check in for the train trip after flight ticket purchase until the same day of train departure, on the website <https://www.rail-checkin.com/#/login>.

For flights that include a route in connection with the TRAIN identified by code I6, it is not necessary to check in for the train route.

For all information, please refer to page https://www.ita-airways.com/en_it/flight-train.html

Note: The train route is subject to the Terms and Conditions of the railway operator. Terms and Conditions for train transportation are distinct and separate from those for air transportation.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

For tickets purchased in Italy: in case of non-use, for any reason, of the outbound flight (or a leg of the outbound flight), the request to maintain the validity of the ticket for the return flight only can be accepted, only if previously communicated to ITA Airways:

- Within 24 hours after the departure time of the unused outbound flight.
- If the departure time of the return flight is within 24 hours of the outward journey, communication to the Contact Center must arrive at least two hours prior to the departure of the aforementioned return flight.

The Contact Center will issue a new electronic ticket, which means it will be necessary to check in on the website (if available) or at the airport. If the passenger does not contact us or does so only after the time indicated, ITA Airways, where there are seats available on the flight, reserves the right to request payment of an amount equal to the difference between the price paid for the previously purchased ticket and the higher price applicable to the modified itinerary at the time of the reissue of the ticket.

Warning

Cabin baggage space is limited and it may be necessary to check in your hand luggage at the gate.

Fare rules for the Light Fares

Baggage allowance: only hand luggage is allowed.

Check-in: via ITA Airways's website & mobile(when available), and/or the kiosks at the airport (where present). Otherwise please go to the check-in desk at the airport.
