Project Expedition is not liable for any injuries, sickness, accidents, delays, neglect, fraud, poor weather, negative consequence or expenses caused, made possible by, or associated with the Businesses, their tour and activities (products) or their affiliates.
Travel insurance, passports, appropriate visas and necessary vaccinations are your responsibility. Project Expedition is not responsible for any consequence of your failure to plan in advance.
Cancellations, Modifications, and Complaints
If you need to cancel or modify your booking, you must submit your request online via the "Manage Bookings" page. The "Manage Bookings" page can be accessed by (1) visiting https://pe.tours/manage (2) clicking the "Manage Bookings" link at the top right of the page on projectexpedition.com or (3) if you have a registered Project Expedition account, going to "My Account", locating your booking under the "Bookings" tab and then selecting "Manage Reservation". Modifications will be subject to availability and the approval of the tour operator. If you experience an issue with a tour or transfer, you must report it to Project Expedition no later than 14 days after the date of your reservation. All reports must be on time, in writing, and emailed to support@projectexpedition.com to be considered for a refund, should you be eligible for a refund as per our Terms and Conditions.
Shore Excursions Policies
This booking includes the following benefit(s), which supplement the terms above:
Cruise Friendly Refund Policy (included on all Shore Excursions)
You are eligible for a full refund if: your ship arrives late and you miss the excursion; your ship changes its arrival date and rescheduling isn't possible; your ship skips the port of call; your cruise is canceled by the cruise line; or you cancel before the Cancellation Deadline on your Booking Voucher. Submit claims in writing to support@projectexpedition.com within 14 days of the scheduled excursion date, with your booking reference. We verify the ship's actual itinerary before processing; approved refunds follow Section 10 (Refunds).
